Application for Departmental Scholarship Undergraduate Program

(Please print or type all information)

Instructions: In the Department of Economics, scholarships are reserved exclusively for students unconditionally accepted in the BA/BS program in economics. Applicants must pursue a graduate degree in economics, be registered for at least six hours, have a minimum 3.4 GPA as computed the UTA registrar's office, submit a statement of purpose and intent and this application form.

Scholarship decisions are made twice a year: in the middle of the spring and fall semesters. Applications are accepted throughout the calendar year. If there are no sufficiently qualified applicants in a given year, the Department of Economics may not offer scholarships in that year.
